Neusiedl am See and Lake Neusiedl

Lake Neusiedl is an UN world heritage site and Austria's biggest lake with 350km². The lake provides best sailing conditions in particular in spring and autumn and was host of many international sailing events such as the ISAF World Sailing Games 2006, 420 Worlds 2012 or 470 Junior Worlds 2003.

Neusiedl am See is Austria's fastest growing town, situated at the northern shore of Lake Neusiedl. The town is well known for its quality of living and for its high quality restaurants but also for its "Heurigen" where the excellent local wine can be tasted.
